

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, the Louisiana FFA organization has designated May 2, 2006 as "FFA Day" at the state Capitol; and
- WHEREAS, the national FFA organization prepares and trains students for leadership and professions in the science, business, and technology of agriculture in public schools throughout our nation; and
- WHEREAS, the mission of the FFA organization is to make a positive difference in the lives of young people by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education; and
- WHEREAS, the motto of the FFA organization, "Learning to Do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve," gives members words to live by as they experience the opportunities of the organization; and
- WHEREAS, agriculture is vital to the economy of this state, including the education and training of students through agricultural education programs for careers that may continually respond to the trends and demands of the marketplace.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, KATHLEEN BABINEAUX BLANCO, Governor of the state of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim May 2, 2006 as in the state of Louisiana, and urge all citizens to observe the day and become more familiar with and support the programs of the FFA organization in the schools in this state.
